Gaston thinks he's a fine specimen of a man—and when he brags, people listen! Don't plug your ears, either, if you know what's good for you.

Any minute now, Gaston will notice that he's missing a few things. Can you find them?

His foolish friend

His mirror

A letter from his mother

His quiver

His blunderbuss

A picture of his favorite person

His comb

Belle doesn't have much of an appetite tonight, but Mrs. Potts and Lumiere are sure they can tempt her to try just a tiny bite of something. Perhaps a little music will help.

Can you find these tempting morsels that the kitchen has whipped up for Belle's first supper in the castle?

Caesar salad

Aged cheese

Angel food cake

French bread

Chilled asparagus

Chicken à la king

Atten-shun! Gaston's angry mob is sure the Beast is a terrible monster. Now everyone in the castle, from the lowliest dustbin to the fanciest featherduster, must report for duty to protect the Beast and his castle.

Look for these soldiers as they battle the villagers.
